Delaware Valley Echo Society (DVES) - 1/29/2026

The DVES is comprised of physicians, fellows in training, and sonographers featuring an expert speaker on a topic of interest followed by case presentations from institutions throughout the Delaware Valley.

Typically, meetings are held 6 times a year from September through June. The meetings include a lecture on the topic of interest by the expert speaker followed by case presentations.

The venue rotates between institutions from the Delaware Valley. Meetings are in person (and streamed on Zoom). The meetings start with a social hour.
