

OBGYN Grand Rounds 2026-2027

Updates in the use of antenatal corticosteroids

The OBGYN Regularly Scheduled Series (RSS) Grand Rounds is designed for attending physicians, residents, nurses, medical assistants, advanced practice providers, and other healthcare professionals involved in women's health care.

This activity features expert presentations, case-based discussions, quality improvement initiatives, and evidence-based updates in obstetrics and gynecology. The purpose of the series is to enhance clinical knowledge, promote interdisciplinary collaboration, improve patient safety and quality of care, and support the delivery of high-quality, patient-centered care.
