Healthy Beginnings, Hopeful Future
Friday, June 12, 2026 | 9:00AM - 4:00PM ET
Dorrance H. Hamilton Building, Center City Campus of Thomas Jefferson University, Philadelphia, PA

Join us for Updates in Women's Health 2026: Healthy Beginnings, Hopeful Future at Thomas Jefferson University Dorrance H. Hamilton Building in Philadelphia. This hybrid conference will bring together content experts and healthcare providers to focus on improving the lives and patient outcomes of women.

This multidisciplinary conference includes updates on disorders and medical conditions that cause varying symptoms that may affect women differently than men. Experts in the field of oncology, gastroenterology, dermatology and women's health will share their expertise and new findings on a range of topics including urogynecology and plastic and reconstructive surgery, breast cancer, pelvic floor dysfunction in women, and cosmetic dermatology.

We are also pleased to welcome Christine Vaccaro DO, FACOG, our keynote speaker. Dr. Vaccaro is an expert in treating urogynecological conditions and has conducted research on interstitial cystitis (IC), pelvic floor disorders, and clitoral anatomy.

Your participation as an exhibitor would provide meaningful visibility among the diverse clinical professionals who attend this conference. Engagement opportunities include showcasing innovations, resources, technologies, or services that support the care of women across the lifespan.

The exhibit hall will be open throughout the conference with designated times for participants to visit your booth. Please review the accompanying agenda and exhibitor information. This information is also available on the course webpage: <https://jefferson.cloud-cme.com/womenshealth2026>.

Please join us as an exhibitor for this much-anticipated conference. If you have any questions or require additional information, please contact me directly.

Product Theaters provide a focused, high-value live marketing opportunity for exhibitors to reach motivated professionals in a pre-scheduled, private session. Product Theaters provide a forum to gather and discuss issues on patient education, specific products and therapeutic areas with company representatives or your designees.

Jefferson Office of CPD recognizes that Product Theaters will be promotional and may concentrate on a specific product or drug. These sessions are not approved for continuing education credits.

- Product Theaters will be advertised to registered conference attendees prior to the meeting via email.
- Companies may provide a 1-page digital flyer that will be distributed on the day of the program at the registration area.
  - Sponsor must provide Company Representative Name, Title of Session (up to 8 words), Short Description of Session (up to 15 words) and Extended Description of Discussion (up to 60 words), flyer and company logo.
- The company must hold the registration platform for this slot if desired by the company.
- A virtual information page will be set up in the conference virtual platform, which links to a dedicated Product Theater page

No portion of this fee will be allocated toward food or beverage. The conference will provide lunch for attendees, and they may bring their meals into the Product Theater to eat during your session if they choose.
