

Jefferson Winter CME 2027 January 24-28, 2027 Snowmass Village, Colorado

Join Drs. David Kastenberg, Christopher Henry, and Aaron Martin at the Jefferson Annual Winter CME in-person event scheduled for January 24-28, 2027 in Snowmass Village, Colorado.

This annual Jefferson Winter CME activity brings together clinicians from various specialties to facilitate valuable professional networking and to share the latest updates in medicine, integrative health, surgical therapy, and neurologic and psychiatric diseases. Winter CME faculty include physicians and leaders from Jefferson Health, Thomas Jefferson University, and Thomas Jefferson University alumni.

Why Exhibit?

Market your organization and raise brand awareness to Jefferson clinicians and clinicians from other organizations.

Insight

Engage in meaningful discussions with attendees about the issues, trends, and innovations that are happening in pharmaceuticals and medical devices.

Network

Enhance relationships and elevate your exposure to Jefferson clinicians and make new contacts.

Product Demonstration

Introduce potential clients to new products and cutting-edge technology.

Network with participants at the Welcome Reception on the first day and on the last day at the Farewell Dinner. The exhibit hall will be open at times throughout the conference. Please review the accompanying exhibitor information. This information and the agenda can also be found on the course webpage: <https://jefferson.cloud-cme.com/wintercme2027>

We hope that you will join us as an exhibitor for this much anticipated annual event. If you have any questions or require additional information, please contact me.

	6 City, state, and ZIP code PHILADELPHIA, PA 19107
7 List account number(s) here (optional)
Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)
Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN , later. Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. See also What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification
Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:
1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.
Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and, generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.
Sign Here	Signature of U.S. person 			Date 01/28/2026
General Instructions
Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.
Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9 .
What's New
Line 3a has been modified to clarify how a disregarded entity completes this line. An LLC that is a disregarded entity should check the appropriate box for the tax classification of its owner. Otherwise, it should check the "LLC" box and enter its appropriate tax classification.
Purpose of Form
An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS is giving you this form because they
