

Curriculum

Four online asynchronous sequential self-paced learning modules to be complete within six weeks of registration.

	Learning Modules	Aim
	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Problem of Antibiotic Resistance and the Role of Nursing in Antibiotic Stewardship 2. Antibiotic Stewardship Nursing Practices that Support the Safe and Responsible Use of Antibiotics 3. Infectious Diseases and Principles of Antibiotic Therapy 4. Leading Antibiotic Stewardship Nursing Practice 	Provide the learner with foundational knowledge of antibiotic resistance and antibiotic stewardship; introduce the SCAN-P Framework and nursing practices that support the safe and responsible use of antibiotics. Provide the learner with advanced knowledge of nursing practices that support the safe and responsible use of antibiotics as well as practical guidance on how to make antibiotic stewardship a routine part of daily practice regardless of patient care setting. Provide the learner with foundational knowledge in the systematic approach to infectious diseases management and selection and use of antibacterial agents. Provide the learner with practical strategies and tools to apply the SCAN-P framework to successfully implement selected nursing practices that support the safe and responsible use of antibiotics.